“Arbitrating in volatile times: Insolvency, Insurance and Damages”

The world is facing volatile times in many fronts. International commerce and dispute resolution are not alien to this. Led by pre-eminent experts in arbitration, this conference focuses on some of the most critical effects produced by the current crises on international arbitration: The rise in insolvent parties; the significant role of insurance arbitration; and the latest development on damages claims.

WELCOME ADDRESS:

Javier Íscar. President of the European Association of Arbitration.

CHAIR:

Michael Laming. Director in HKA's Forensic Accounting and Commercial Damages practice.

SPEAKERS:

Manuel Penades Fons – “Arbitration and insolvent parties”
